Special Offer for Race to Mackinac Competitors

Now is the time to review your medical kits and crew preparedness in the event of a medical incident during the race. Should there be a medical incident during the race, you need to provide assistance quickly and accurately.

The standard in onboard care, MedAire provides medical equipment and medications for responding to both common and life threatening incidents.

▶ First Responder Kit

During the race, MedAire’s First Responder Kit and Guide is a “grab-and-go” must-have for all routine and critical first aid needs.

Small enough for stowage in multiple locations, the kit includes personal protection equipment, medications, bandages, CPR masks, and assessment and survival items.

- Green pouch: personal protection equipment
- Black pouch: over-the-counter medications
- Red pouch: bandages, gauze, etc.
- Blue pouch: CPR masks, inhaler, etc.
- Orange pouch: assessment and survival items

All MedAire Medical Kits are built following ISO 9001 quality standards.

Maritime First Responder Guide

Included with the First Responder Kit, the guide provides information on the signs, symptoms, appropriate responses and resources available during racing incidents.

Information includes:

- Victim assessment skills
- Environmental incidents (burns, hypothermia)
- Medical emergencies (heart attack, stroke)
- CPR, AED application and relief of choking
- Injury and bleeding (wounds, bone and joint injuries, shock)
